

Purpose

The Marshall Education Foundation is chartered “to provide for the promotion of and funding for secondary and post-secondary school educational needs including, but not limited to, facilities, equipment, operations, student scholarships, fellowships and grants, and such other functions, activities and services as are necessary, desirable, and expedient in the exercise of this power.”

The twelve directors in compliance with the Three Star Community criteria currently over-see funds that are used for equipping the Columbia State Community College Lewisburg Campus and granting dual enrollment scholarships to Marshall County students with junior and senior status who qualify for enrollment in college classes.

With sufficient funding from donations, grants, endowments, and trusts, the Foundation would be able to do the following:

- Award scholarships to eligible students for college courses at

Columbia State or any other institution for higher learning

- Provide funding for teacher seminars, workshops or continuing education
- Support the development of any expansion of higher education opportunities in Marshall County, Tennessee
